3 Dialogue completion

Now complete the dialogues.

Dialogue 1

Kate: Where is it?

Mark: I think it's somewhere on my desk. Can you see it?

Kate: Ah, wait a second. Oh yes, it's lying _____<sup>1</sup> to your smartphone, in front of your keyboard.

Dialogue 2

Mark: Can you see it anywhere?

Kate: Yes, I can. It's lying _____<sup>2</sup> your notepad.

Dialogue 3

Mark: I think it's somewhere in my office.

Kate: OK, let me check. Where exactly?

Mark: Erm, it's probably on the shelf _____<sup>3</sup> the router.

Kate: Ah, yes, I see it now.

Dialogue 4

Mark: Can you have a look for them?

Kate: Just a second. Err...yes, I've found them.

Mark: Where were they?

Kate: They were _____<sup>4</sup> your camera.

Dialogue 5

Mark: I think I left it on my desk.

Kate: Let me have a look. Yeah, I see it. It's _____<sup>5</sup> the mouse, _____<sup>6</sup> the keyboard and your notepad.

Mark: Great.

Dialogue 6

Mark: Is it there?

Kate: It's on your desk, _____<sup>7</sup> your keyboard. And it's still switched on.

Mark: Oh dear.

4 Role play

Work in pairs. Have a conversation with your partner. Pretend you have lost something, but don't tell your partner what it is. Your partner should ask you where it is and try to guess what it is. Make use of prepositions and expressions of place, for example:

under on top of next to to the left of
on behind to the right of between
