

Learn & Share
ONLINE EDUCATION

MAN DRIVES INTO THE OCEAN

Man Drives into the Ocean – level 2

14-07-2020
15:00

Level 1

Level 2

Level 3

Police in Perth, Australia were chasing a man. After two hours, the man drove towards the beach. He stopped at the beach for a moment. When the police car arrived, he drove into the ocean.

The unusual tactic, however, did not work. His car began to sink, so he climbed out of a window and tried to swim away. Police officers waded into the water and caught him.

VOCABULARIES

Choose the synonym of each word from the group of words below.

- * Chase /tʃeɪs/ - to follow and to try to catch
- * Beach /bi:tʃ/ - an area of sand or small stones near the sea
- * Arrive /ə'raɪv/ - to come
- * Tactic /'tæk.tɪk/ - a planned way of doing something
- * Sink /sɪŋk/ - go down below
- * Wade /weɪd/ - to walk in water

catch

walk in water

plan

go down
a body of water

come strategy

QUICK CHECK

- * Who were the police in Australia chasing?
- * When did the man drove towards the beach?
- * Did he outdrove the police officers?
- * When did he drove into the ocean?
- * What happened next when he drove into the ocean?
- * Can you describe how the police officers caught him?

CONVERSATION QUESTIONS

1. Why do you think were the police officers chasing the man?
2. What do you think of his strategy of outrunning the police officers?
3. How does this news article made you feel?
4. Why did you feel that way?
5. Putting yourself in the shoes of the man being chased, where would you head to outrun the police officers?
6. What will be your strategy?
7. Did you have fun reading this news article or felt disappointed with the man caught?