

Learn & Share
ONLINE EDUCATION

TWO MEN AND AN ESCALATOR

What do you think will this article be about?

Two Men and an Escalator – level 2

10-07-2020

15:00

Level 1

Level 2

Level 3

Two elderly men were walking down an escalator when somebody shouted, “Free burgers!” The men, as well as others, wanted the burgers, and the men started to run up the escalator the wrong way.

It was not easy for them to get to the top. They tripped and fell several times. The people at the Polish shopping centre filmed and watched the two men. After they finally reached the top, they received cheers from the crowd.

Difficult words: elderly (old), trip (to hit something with your foot by accident so that you lose balance), several (a few), cheer (a shout of happiness).

VOCABULARIES

Listen as your teacher uses the words in sentences. Determine the meaning of the word from the sentence given.

▶ Elderly adj. /'el.də.li/

▶ Trip v. /trɪp/

▶ Several det./pron. /'sev.ə.əl/

▶ Cheer v. /tʃɪr/

▶ Crowd n. /kraʊd/

▶ Escalator n. /'es.kə.leɪ.tə/

a set of stairs moved up or down by electric power

large group of people who have come together

shout of happiness

old

to hit something with your foot by accident so that you lose balance

a few

QUICK CHECK

Re-tell what you remember from the news article.

CONVERSATION QUESTIONS

1. Do you like the news article?
 2. Do you think of it as an interesting article or a boring one? Why so?
 3. As an elderly, would you do the same? Why so?
 4. If burgers catches the attention of the two elderly, what food would catch yours?
 5. Do you consider this as a simple event yet cheerful? Or a simple event not worth writing about?
 6. What kind of story similar to the emotions in the article would you be featuring if it were you?
- 