

Learn & Share

ONLINE EDUCATION

ONLINE EDUCATION

BEAR CLIMBS A TALL POLE

Read on

Bear Climbs a Tall Pole – level 2

12-05-2020

15:00

Level 1

Level 2

Level 3

In Canada, a bear climbed a 30-metre utility tower to look in a raven's nest. Despite the danger of the height, the power cables, or the ravens pecking at the bear, the bear got to the top.

A woman filmed the bear's climb. She said that after the bear returned to the ground, it casually walked away.

VOCABULARIES

Instruction: From the sentences given, you will identify the meaning of the word from the choices provided. Some italicized word/s is/are your clue.

1. In Canada, a bear climbed a 30-metre utility [/ju:'tɪl.ə.ti/] tower to look in a raven's nest.
2. In Canada, a bear climbed a 30-metre utility tower to look in a raven's ['reɪ.vən/] nest.
3. Despite the danger of the height, the power cables, or the ravens pecking [/pek/] at the bear, the bear got to the top.
4. Despite [/dɪ'spaɪt/] the danger of the height, the power cables, or the ravens pecking at the bear, the bear got to the top.
5. Despite the danger [/'deɪn.dʒə/] of the height, the power cables, or the ravens pecking at the bear, the bear got to the top.
6. She said that after the bear returned to the ground, it casually [/'kæʒ.u:.ə.li/] walked away.

electric power to bite quickly and not hard blankly

a big, black bird

harm

not prevented or stopped by

QUICK CHECK

1. What country was mentioned in the article?
2. What animal climbed an electric power?
3. Why did this animal climb the electric power?
4. What were the things that the bear overcame just to get to the top?
5. Who filmed the bear's climb?
6. What was her description after the bear returned to the ground?

CONVERSATION QUESTIONS

1. Would you like to have a bear as your home pet? Why?
2. Can you describe to me the bear that was mentioned in the news article? Is the bear something that caught your interest?
3. What came to your mind about the bear reaching the top despite the dangers it faced?
4. Do you like filming? What particular activity do you like about it?
5. What other things would you like to film about the bear's activity?
6. Would you like showing or sharing it to other people through a blog or you would rather write a book about it? Why so?